

B I S M A R C K Winter Olympics

You don't have to go to Sochi to participate in the Winter Olympic Games. Catch the Olympic fever right here. Bismarck Parks and Recreation District, along with many community partners, offers many winter Olympic events.

Why not try your hand at some winter Olympics, right at home? Participate in or try up to five Olympic events, and get a gold medal. Try three and bring home the silver. Try just two events, and you are a bronze medalist. Get your friends, get your co-workers, get your kids and be an Olympian!

The Bismarck Winter Olympics is purely on the honor system. Just try some Olympic events listed below by filling out this form and filling in where and when you completed your event. Turn in the form at Bismarck Parks and Recreation District, 400 E. Front Ave. by 5 p.m. on Friday, February 28th. Office hours are Monday through Friday, 7:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Your medal is waiting for you.

Here are your Winter Olympic choices. Good luck and have fun!
